National League of American Pen Women

The National League of American Pen Women (NLAPW) is the nation's oldest organization for creative women. It consists of women who have demonstrated creative talents in art, letters, and music composition.

Branches throughout the United States hold regular meetings and events with programs of interest to artists, writers, and composers. Membership is by invitation of an active member and presentation of qualifying credentials. The Atlanta Branch of NLAPW holds a luncheon meeting each second Wednesday of months September through May. They welcome new members in art, letters, and music.
